Another year at Montana State University . . .
A thousand memories . . . Gaiety and laughter . . .
Evenings of dancing in dimly lit rooms . . . New acquaintances, close friendships . . . Long discussions in drab committee rooms in the old Student Union . . .
The move to the Lodge and pleasant surroundings . . . Hours bent over books . . . Cramming for finals . . . Coffee breaks in the Grill . . . For some, the first glorious year of college life; for others, the last preparatory measure before stepping out into the world we live in . . . Another year past . . . A milestone in all our lives . . .

Campus Life

High School Music Camp during summer session pleased many wide-eyed young musicians . . .

Registration moved to Field House . . . More freshmen, more lines . . . Forms to fill out . . . More lines . . .

Time was taken out from full orientation week program to see President Eisenhower, in Missoula for dedication of new smoke jumping center . . .

John Bansch and Jim Roberts registering freshmen for interfraternity rush . . . Drink up, young man—so long as it's coke, that is . . .

ORIENTATION WEEK

"Ouch, it's wet!" discovered Susie Hodges, Mary Johnson . . . But then which M painting hasn't been . . .

Paint, paint, paint . . . And believe it or not, that white stuff is for the rocks . . .

Polish that bell . . . Paint those spokes . . . Now, freshmen, let's hope you'll be able to ring that bell — legitimately . . .

Early October brought Dick Jurgens and his orchestra to MSU . . .
Attracted large crowd to the Field House . . .

First SOS of the year . . . "And so it's up with Montana boys . . ."

Corbin Hall-Phi Delt entry in the Homecoming parade, the U.S.S. Montana, sailed to victory . . . Was judged first place winner over floats entered by other living groups . . .

Bonfire by the Field House the night before the Utah Aggie-Grizzly game booted school spirit . . . Band helped get everyone in the swing of things . . .

Homecoming

Traditions Board Chairman Johan Miller waited with more flowers as Bill Campbell, 1954 Homecoming chairman, presented Queen Marilyn Shope with flowers and trophy . . .

Our Cow College cousins from Bozeman kindly granted us permission to import their reigning beauty . . . Blond John and his attendants rewarded fans with chicken pellet showers . . .

A BOB about to be eliminated by four Kams—Lou Marilyn Vierhus, Gayle Gibbons, Ann Crocker, Marilyn Gunkel . . . But football losers never win . . . Looks as though the Dregs got ousted, too . . .

Hyper-active Hoff relaxed from chairman duties to wield those final strokes . . . Pat Fox, Betty Millhouse slipped in a few moments of relaxation, too . . .

Sadie Hawkins Dance

Pretty good show up there?

Where do the bubbles go?

Two heads are better than one — especially when they're mountain folk . . .

Hop-a-long, fall down to the finish line . . . The sack race is on . . .

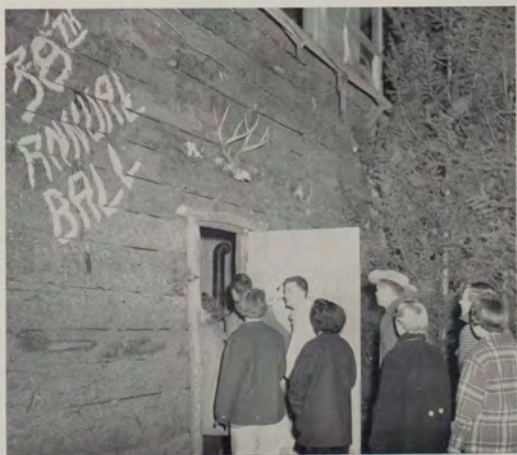

Dick Behan, Sigma Nu, beams after being crowned Peppermint Prince at North Hall's third annual ball . . .

Coach Jiggs Dahlberg welcoming Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Howard, here for Helena Boosters' Night . . . Tall Helena athlete, Ray Howard, in the background . . . Boosters' Nights were carried out throughout basketball season . . . Brought large out-of-town crowds to Field House . . .

Entrance to a big event . . . You'd never guess this was the Field House . . .

Bunyan and buddies, bushmen of MSU, await the beard judging . . .

Foresters' Ball

Don Stagg beat out his ragtime rhythm . . . Say, is that the prize-winning beard in the background?

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Morrison . . . Best dressed couple with old logger costumes . . .

The Winners

Kelsey Smith presenting the award for the best Paul Bunyan type beard to Bob Stanley . . .

Chuck Rubel . . . Man with the neatest beard . . . This is the Foresters' Ball . . . Why a bullfighter?

Ski Weekend

Waiting for the T bar while at the big Ski Weekend at Whitefish . . . Mountain doesn't look too steep in the picture, but looks are often deceiving . . .

The Torch Parade . . . An annual event for skiers . . . A beautiful sight for spectators . . .

Nan Hubbard, WRA president, at the ice skating rink dedication, wishing future skaters well . . . Skeptic Chaney seems dubious . . . Don't worry, Don . . . The rink will work in summer as well as winter . . .

Masters of ceremony, John Vohs and Bill Drum, on the air along with other MSU talent to aid the March of Dimes . . . Don Stag awaits his cue . . .

"Six Laughing Lassies" cut a pretty figure at the rink dedication . . . Were admired by a crowd 600 strong . . .

Four gay blades . . . Watch that balanced man . . . What poise . . . What ability . . . Whoops!

Tina Stohr and Gordon Rognlien entertain . . . From western music to blues to ballet . . . The Nite Club dance had it . . .

Larry Nitz with his accordion . . . Only a frosh, but what talent!

A western ballad now . . . Go west, young lady . . . June Patton couldn't get a man with a gun . . .

Nite Club Dance

Vocalists Jean Kostelic and Art Dahlberg sent us somewhere over the rainbow . . .

Everybody mambo . . . Ever popular Jubileers went along with the new rage . . .

Lodge Dedication

Now from the students' viewpoint . . . Prexy Chaney defined the purposes of a union and hoped for student participation . . .

A dance following the dedication ceremony gave students a chance to break in the Yellowstone Room . . .

Barristers' Ball

Lawyers went formal . . . Almost crowned Miss Corpus Delecti at this big affair . . .

Not too plastered! Bob Tofte asked for it . . . They let him have it . . . But the Phi Sigs' concession was proclaimed the most successful at Mardi Gras — along with New Hall's, of course . . .

Joan Oechsli, George Boifeuillet reigned as royalty over this Newman Club sponsored event . . .

Mardi Gras

A congratulatory kiss . . .
Long live the king and queen . . .

Dubious DeForth, Dreamy Don, Pensive Pat, Judicious Joan watched over Central Board as the Aber Day issue sizzled . . . Central Board finally settled for a spring vacation and All University Day in place of Aber Day . . .

The Red Cross blood drive at MSU again . . .

Aquamaid Pageant

Laughter reigned as Dave Penwell thrilled spectators with his crazy antics . . .

Aquamaids attracted capacity crowds to their "Concert of the Sea" . . . Months of preparation brought good results for the first big event of spring quarter . . .

A happy moment when the new coed colonel was crowned . . .
All smiles—George Boifeuillet;
Dolores Guilbault, coed colonel;
Phyllis Kind, outgoing coed colonel

The Dave Brubeck Quartet presented a well attended concert at MSU early spring quarter . . . Were received with a great deal of enthusiasm by music lovers . . .

Military Ball

In tuxes or uniforms, fellows brought their dates to the Florence Hotel . . . Ralph Bingham, Ed Stuart pouring punch for their gals — Jamie Yule, Marcia Brown . . .

Chaney and P.K. doing a fancy step . . .

A more sedate All University Day replaced Aber Day . . . Lunch was served on the oval, in spite of ominous clouds . . .

All University Day

Everyone found a comfortable spot on the lawn and sat down to eat the delicious barbecued meat and accessories . . .

Soloist and Tony Pastor entertain the crowd . . .

Tony Pastor and his orchestra played to a comfortable crowd in the Cascade Room during May . . . The last of a series of name bands which came to MSU during the year . . .

Leadership Camp

Jeanne Berthelote, George Lambros, Sheila Lacy, and Jim Abbott enjoying the sun between sessions . . . Flathead Lake Lodge once again proved an ideal location for Leadership Camp . . .

A well planned program allowed time between meetings for recreation . . . Even the weather was nice, so those attending had their choice of tennis, horseback riding, boat or canoe riding, or just gathering in little groups to discuss narrower phases of leadership as Dean Wunderlich, Gary Jystad, Betty Millhouse, and Jo Ann LaDuke are doing here . . .

Leaders learned about parliamentary procedure and had a few laughs besides as they observed a skit presented by Larry Gaughan, Joan Hoff, Shirley DeForth, Ken Duffy, Pat O'Hare, Dean Wunderlich . . .

Took the Sigma Chi's a while to catch up with Gary Iystad after the ASMSU election outcome was announced . . . Lost no time in giving him a cold shower . . . Bruce Crippen, far right, looked on knowingly after undergoing same treatment shortly before . . .

Track Meet

High school girls were lured to MSU by cute grizzly bear given away by AWS . . .

Mortar Board members, traditionally tapped on the steps of Main Hall at the SOS during Track Meet time, were tapped in the Main Hall auditorium this year because of rainy weather . . . Newly tapped Spurs with the old Spurs and Bear Paws in the background . . .

The annual Lantern Parade is a big event for senior women . . . Wearing caps and gowns and carrying lighted Chinese lanterns, they form an M on the oval, as other University women form a circle around them . . . Here the girls are returning to Main Hall following the ceremony . . .

Lantern Parade

Graduation

At last . . . Graduation time . . . Seniors chat as they await the baccalaureate service . . . Commencement follows . . .
They bid a fond farewell to MSU . . . The transition . . . Students become alumni . . .

ASMSU

DON CHANEY
ASMSU President

A dynamic personality combined with an apt know-how for leadership . . . His friendliness and contagious enthusiasm were important in completing the transition from the old Union to the new Lodge . . . Among Don's pet projects were streamlining the student government and creating a closer association with faculty and administration in solving university problems . . . Always progressive, he helped get the students a spring vacation and All University Day in place of the vestigial Aber Day . . . Though outnumbered three to one by the fairer sex in the ASMSU office, dazzling Don set the pace for a memorable year . . .

JOAN BACHMAN

ASMSU Business Manager

You'd never know to look at her that she was a penny pincher, but Joan, with the assistance of an inspired Budget and Finance Committee, kept student funds in tight control, making certain that each activity received its fair share of "filthy lucre" . . . Nothing was too serious for a laugh with Joan, and in some of the more trying sessions of Central Board, her sense of humor was a life saver . . . Selected Outstanding Senior Girl at Matrix Table, she never let a budget interfere with her interest in people . . . Who says efficiency and fun don't go together?

Central Board

PAT O'HARE

ASMSU Vice President

She was lovely . . . She was engaged (by now she's married) . . . She was easily one of ASMSU's most ubiquitous vice prexies . . . Pat had a finger in every major pie on campus . . . Associate editor of the Kaimin, she was also chairman of the Social and Honor System Committees . . . No problem was too tough for this dauntless girl with the infectious smile . . . Pat's contributions to traditions and activities place her among the University's most outstanding leaders . . .

SHIRLEY DeFORTH

ASMSU Secretary

Meet the girl who knew the score; as ASMSU secretary, she kept it . . . Shirley's top-notch ability enabled her to polish off her manifold secretarial duties with ease, so that she had time to contribute personally to campus-wide affairs . . . Holder of a list of achievements and scholarships at least a mile long, she had no time to appraise past laurels . . . At her best when face to face with new challenges, she was a dominant force in shaping far-sighted projects . . .

Sentinel

GEORGIA GEORGE

Editor

The girl with a million problems who bravely faced the pitfalls of deadlines, location changes, and hectic yearbook life . . . While most of the staff made the casualty list at least once during the year, Georgia survived with a smile . . . She succeeded in recruiting interested student help and obtaining an office in the Lodge . . . How she did it, we don't know—but, by George, she did it! . . . Georgia was also named Outstanding Junior Girl by Matrix Table . . .

CHARLES JACOBY

Business Manager

Chuck kept up the business end of the Sentinel and still had time for married life . . . He put to use his training in architectural drawing by designing the Sentinel cover . . . He also managed to keep Russ in cigarettes and the rest of the staff in good spirits . . . Chuck's sense of business and humor got us over many a rough spot and into the home stretch . . .

DICK HOSKING

Assistant Editor

Our expert in photography, Dick has been a contributor of fine pictures to more than one Sentinel . . . His innovations, such as a filing system for names and photos, enabled the staff to work more efficiently . . . Dick's experience and drive will stand him in good stead as next year's editor . . .

NATALIE NORBY

Associate Editor

Beauty and brains best describe this girl, who could discuss T. S. Eliot or draw up a layout with the best of them . . . Petite Natalie survived Sentinel hazards magnificently and made history by completing her faculty section on time . . . Her loyalty to the staff didn't interfere with numerous campus activities and plans for a sensational summer in California . . .

RUSSELL PFOHL

Associate Editor

Meet the busiest man on campus who, after finishing work on the classes section of the Sentinel, stayed on to help with the rest of the book . . . Though Russ contributed unselfishly to the University (his list of activities would make anyone wince), he didn't let his 4. average down even once . . .

MURIEL GRIFFIN DANIELS

Associate Editor

Confronted with a rough decision—the Sentinel or Jack—Muriel managed to find the right answer . . . She somehow delivered the goods on her Greeks section between keeping house for Jack and long shifts at the phone company . . . Besides being a member of Mortar Board and Theta Sigma Phi, Muriel was voted "Housewife of the Year" by the Sentinel staff . . .

BRUCE COOK

Associate Editor

"The man who wasn't there" kept the staff in high suspense as to the status of the sports section . . . Between debate trips, Bruce managed to sandwich in a few side-trips to the Sentinel office . . . But all turned out for the best . . . The sports section was completed, and Bruce brought honors to MSU with his debate victories . . .

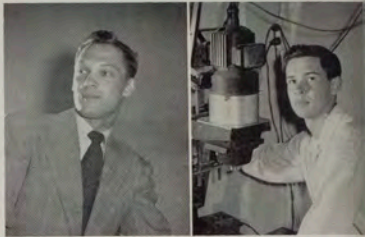

Kay Blaszek, as ad manager, put in many hours to meet the quota for ads . . . Did such a good job, she steps up to the position of business manager for the 1956 Sentinel . . .

Portia Breitenstein and Charlene Mudd — two cheerful freshmen who were in the office at least once almost every day, helping where help was needed . . . Will be associate editors next year . . .

Larry Dylina—indispensable as a photographer . . . Devoted many hours to picture taking and developing, particularly during spring quarter when things seemed to be piling up . . . Was assisted by Dick Sandman, another asset to the staff . . .

Cyrile Van Duser, adviser, dropped in occasionally to see how things were going . . . Her pleasant smile always encouraged the staff when they were in low spirits . . .

Staff

Did everything from soup to nuts . . . Marked pictures . . . Tracked down ads . . . Wrote copy . . . In and out every day . . .

Mary Lou Flodin, Sharon O'Neill, Marcia Smith, Camie Peterson, Marjorie Spaulding

Kaimin

BOB NEWLIN

Editor

No Kaimin job was too small to go unrecognized by Bob, whose time was the Kaimin's and not his own . . . Bob could be found in his office almost any time of the day or night . . . His "pat on the back" for a good piece of work did a lot for the morale of the staff and, as a result, for the quality of the Kaimin . . . Take it from any staff member who worked with Bob . . . They just can't say enough for him . . .

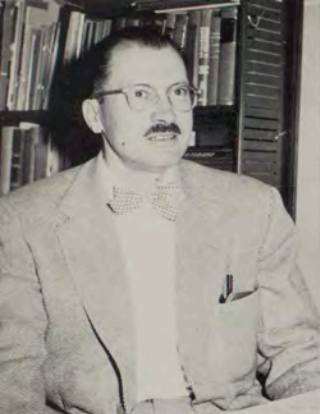

JOAN BROOKS

Business Manager

Maintained a business-like atmosphere in the Kaimin business office . . . Succeeded in carrying out the difficult and time consuming task of keeping the Kaimin "in the black", despite pleas for more space by the editorial staff . . .

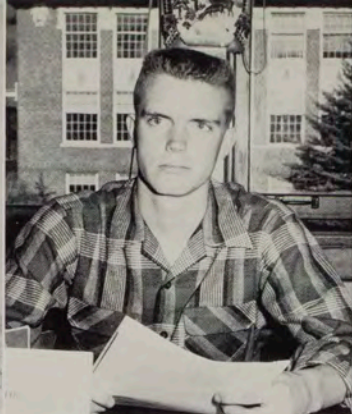

ED DUGAN

Adviser

Put the staff on the right path when they tended to stray . . . Kept a close check on the financial end of the Kaimin . . . His sense of humor eased tension more than once . . .

KIM FORMAN

Associate Editor

As campus editor, Kim had deep thoughts on what a college newspaper should do for a college . . . This was reflected in his taking a firm stand on any issue when he felt it was for the good of the student body . . . Aptly filled the position of editor spring quarter and will continue in this capacity next year . . .

ART MATHISON

Associate Editor

A perfectionist as sports editor . . . Had a natural propensity to see things done right or not at all . . . A master at the sports helm and a reliable consultant on editorial policy questions . . .

The scene looks calm here, but just before the copy deadline the Kaimin office was really buzzing . . . Pictured are Scott Leedham, Ron Erickson, Barbara Mellott . . .

BARBARA MELLOTT

Associate Editor

Devoted many extra hours to her Kaimin duties as society editor, always helping others when most needed . . . Ambitious as an associate and eager to see a flawless paper . . .

PAT O'HARE

Associate Editor

Feature editor and ASMSU vice president . . . Guided and defended Kaimin in controversies with student government . . . Had a strong desire to see cooperation between the newspaper and student organizations in working toward a better MSU . . .

ED STENSON

Associate Editor

Ed not only fulfilled his duties as news editor, but also edited Venture magazine . . . His extraordinary aggressiveness and firm stand for what he believes is a mark of distinction . . .

Virginia McBride explaining ads to George Robertson, Carol McManaway, and Jim Abbott . . . Wonder why Jim was so interested in advertising?

A touch of culture . . . Published three times a year, Venture contains creative writing of MSU students . . .

Alpha Phi

An eye catcher to visitors at the AP house was a gold plate hung artistically over the fireplace—to the left side rather than centered above it . . . Alpha Phi's boasted two ASMSU officers this year—Pat O'Hare, who was vice president, and Shirley DeForth, secretary . . . Both "J" majors, too . . . Rosie Laing was senior class treasurer . . . The girl with personality plus, Phyllis Kind (better known as P.K.), not only fulfilled the duties of president of the Alpha Phi house, but was Mortar Board president and Coed Colonel at the same time . . . Jamie Yule, Spur national vice president, was kept busy adding new Spur chapters to the list . . . Recipient of a Fulbright was Cathy Doherty, well known also for her participation in debate . . . Alpha Phi's also won out in softball and swimming in women's intramural competition . . .

Tri-Delts had an interesting variety of functions . . . A masquerade party centered around a Halloween theme was their fall quarter function . . . Winter quarter, their dinner-dance, Fairyland, included a merry-go-round that moved . . . And for spring, the traditional sunrise breakfast to which the gals brought their dates at 6 a.m. . . . Alarm clocks, roosters, were very fitting decorations for this unusual function . . . Tri Delts also had the annual Pansy Breakfast in the spring for all senior engaged girls on campus . . . Activity-wise, Mary Jo Burns was AWS vesp; Ruth Franz, AWS secretary . . . On Store Board was Jane Baier . . . Betty Elmore, president of Panhellenic . . . Delores Guilbault was crowned Coed Colonel at the Military Ball . . . Tri Delts also found time to win several trophies in girls' athletics—volleyball, softball, and bowling . . . Quite a record in itself . . .

There's a rumor that this picture was posed for . . . Seems the Phi Delt's were the ones who raked the back yard of the Tri Delt house Greek Aber Day . . .

Under the leadership of Lou Marilyn Vierhus, house president, and Gayle Gibbons, scholarship chairman, Thetas received the scholarship cup for highest grades among sororities both fall and winter quarters, making better than a 3. average winter quarter . . . Also took first place at the Newman Club Song Fest with black face, "It Ain't Necessarily So," and the efforts of song leader, Mary Travis . . . A popular entertainer on campus, Berta Huebl achieved the Miss Montana title . . . Sophomore Marilyn Shope was crowned Homecoming Queen . . . Head majorette for the second year was Georgiana Coppedge . . . Dona Woodard served on Store Board . . . Two Thetas were class officers—Jo Ann La Duke and Sandy Fisk . . . Donna Kaye Bailey, Spur president . . . Georgia George, Sentinel editor, was also named Outstanding Junior Girl at Matrix Table . . . And little Arlene Hoiland, the girl who could be found studying at 6 a.m. any morning, came through with a scholarship to study in Norway for a year . . .

To the highest bidder at Mardi Gras went a tie to throw at the Theta of his choice—Marilyn Shope . . . DiAnne Stephens and Natalie Norby enjoyed it from a distance . . .

The Sigma Kappa's received quite a soaking this spring when their neighbors across the street, the SAE's, unbinged their door and turned a hose on all who ventured outdoors . . . But all ended happily . . . Fall quarter featured a Klondike Party with a Christmas theme for the SK's and their dates . . . The scavenger hunt winter quarter was followed by a dance at the house . . . A formal dinner-dance in the spring rounded out their social whirl . . . These girls won the intramural basketball championship and were also the intramural champions this year . . . Darlene Speck, serving as WRA president, saw to it that there was a well-rounded program for women's recreation on campus . . . All in all, it was a most enjoyable year for these girls, as Cynthia Bryson, their president, or any other member of the house could tell you . . .

Alpha Tau Omega

The fellows in the brick house on Maurice Avenue had a pleasant year with Jack Lind as their prexy, Harvey Young as veep, and Don Sansouci, house manager, seeing to it that the household was efficiently run . . . ATO's began their round of functions with a formal dinner-dance at the Governor's Room of the Florence Hotel and steaks on the menu . . . A house party winter quarter was followed by a hayride . . . And spring quarter was highlighted by a weekend party at Seeley Lake . . . Recreation included swimming, hiking, boating, and dancing—to mention only a few things . . . All in all, John Allton, social chairman, did a commendable job . . . House prexy Jack Lind, by the way, was also president of the MSU band . . .

Phi Delta Theta

Phi Dels won an early victory by building the float that took first place in the Homecoming parade—the U.S.S. Montana . . . Working on this gave them a chance to meet the cute Corbin Hall freshmen, their partners on this project . . . George Boiffeuillet, house prexy, brought another victory later in the year when he was crowned Mardi Gras King . . . Always noted for their athletes, Phi Dels this year had Ed Bergquist, Dave Burton, Bill Gue, Keith Peterson, George Samuelson, and Don Little . . . Also won the interfraternity touchball, volleyball, bowling, and tennis championships . . . Socially, their renown Hawaiian party was again a hit . . . Coconuts, pineapples, and four roast pigs helped create atmosphere . . . Winter quarter, Indian costumes and Eskimo outfits complete with snowshoes were in order for their Klondike Capers . . . The climax of the year, however, was the spring dinner-dance at which everyone went formal . . .

Looks like song practice for the Phi Sigs . . . Must have been preparing for the Newman Club Song Fest . . .

Hans Weber often entertained fraternity brothers Tom O'Hanlon and Bob Doran with his piano music . . .

Bob Tofte, president of the Phi Sig house, made a good target in the Phi Sig booth at Mardi Gras . . . He became a little goopy, but their concession was named the best there . . . Phi Sigs also had the winning house decorations at Track Meet time with their lighted totem pole . . . The Phi Sigs' annual Carnation Ball, which takes place every fall, is always anticipated with enthusiasm, as is the crowning of their Moonlight Girl—Rhea Sherburne, this year . . . Coffee Dan's, their winter quarter function, was at the American Legion . . . Their spring picnic was at Lake Blaine . . . Besides these main functions, these fellows had several firesides to fill in when there was little else going on . . .

Always a prominent man on campus, SAE Pat Eyer also proved himself a scholar . . . Was selected in the spring to receive a Rhodes scholarship . . . SAE's were well represented in campus politics this year with three members attending Central Board meetings—Pat, senior delegate; Ken Leuthold, junior delegate; and Bob Gilluly, Traditions Board chairman . . . Two other well-known men were John Earll, Store Board prexy, and Jim Ryan, president of Silent Sentinel . . . SAE's are noted for their colorful fall quarter function, the Harem Party, at which Arabic costumes are worn . . . Gary Cowan, president of the house, along with the rest of the fellows, initiated the Sig Alpha Olympics, something new added to spring quarter . . . Hope this event becomes an annual affair . . .

Sigma Chi

Jack Driscoll, Dan Zenk and Bob Fosse were all Sigma Chi presidents this year . . . They saw their fraternity win the intramurals for football, track, swimming, and horseshoes in interfraternity competition . . . Sigs also came out on top in the ASMSU elections spring quarter with two of their members receiving the top two ASMSU posts—Gary Jystad taking over the ropes as ASMSU president, and Bruce Crippen, as ASMSU business manager . . . In sports, Joe DeLuca was a top football star; Gary and Maury Colberg excelled in basketball; Ron Lundquist and Jim Rowland in track . . . Charles Jacoby was business manager of the Sentinel . . . Dick Hosking, a veteran on the Sentinel staff, takes over as editor of the '56 Sentinel . . . Their French Party in the fall is always something to look forward to . . . At their Sweetheart Ball in February, the Sigma Chi's crowned Lynn McCaffery . . . An important year for Sigma Chi is 1955, its 100th anniversary . . .

Sigma Nu

Sigma Nu's received scholastic recognition by being the top men's living group both fall and winter quarters . . . Boasted a great many campus leaders, too . . . Don Chaney, ASMSU prexy . . . Central Board delegates Larry Gaughan, Jim Abbott, George Lambros, and Stan Nicholson . . . Stan was also president of Grizzly Growlers . . . Jim Tutwiler served on Store Board . . . Class officers were Tom Needham and Dick Riddle . . . John Fowler made a capable Bear Paw prexy . . . M Club prexy was Howie Burke . . . Interfraternity prexy, Bob Isner . . . Keeping up Sigma Nu tradition, Bob Newlin was Kaimin editor; Kim Forman took over the editorial position spring quarter . . . A well rounded house, Sigma Nu's also had several athletes—Ed Argenbright, Paul Caine, Ken Byerly, Jim Black . . . Dick Behan received the much-to-be-desired Peppermint Prince title at North Hall's function . . . Possessing talent in every direction, the Sigma Nu's also were judged first in the annual Newman Club Song Fest . . . Quite a record for one year, eh? . . . Ken Duffy was house president . . .

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Seems there is some doubt as to whether there are more music majors or more journalism majors in the Sig Ep house . . . Musicians claim they are in the majority; "J" majors likewise . . . So nobody knows . . . Chuck Kester, Sig Ep president at the beginning of the year, relinquished his post for married life . . . It was taken over by Scott Leedham . . . With Karl Allen as house manager and Louis Powell, social chairman, the fellows in the gray house with the bright red door added another year of college life to their memory books . . . At their Queen of Hearts Ball in the fall, SPE's chose Linda Ross . . . Their Firemen's Ball winter quarter was a costume party . . . The semi-formal dance spring quarter was particularly well attended, since members from four other Sig Ep chapters were here for the District 17 conclave . . .

Rolland Saylor, Rayner Dickey, Nevil France, Ronald Duff, and Darwin Pfaffinger—mighty happy when dinnertime finally arrived . . .

The modern living room of the Theta Chi house is a pleasant place to study—when it is quiet there . . . Darwin Pfaffinger and Tom Unger taking advantage of a few of the quieter moments . . .

Theta Chi

That comfortable looking white house with the brown trim on University Avenue is the home of Theta Chi's . . . Spring quarter, any number of them could be found studying or relaxing in their patio, which also provided a nice place for dancing more than once . . . An interesting party is the Theta Chi's fall quarter Hobo Arts Ball . . . Their Red and White Ball took place winter quarter . . . A spring house party at Lindberg Lake was their last function of the year . . . Ray Dickey was the Theta Chi's prexy this year . . . Assisting him were Allen Patton, veep; Bob Tromley, secretary; Bob Hutchins, treasurer and house manager; and Ralph Rundle, social chairman . . . Jim Roberts, a prominent Theta Chi, was well known about the campus for his participation in debate . . . Served as debate captain . . .

I should like to thank those who helped make the 1955 Sentinel a reality . . . The members of the staff who worked very closely, took great interest in the Sentinel, and spent many, many hours performing tedious tasks . . . My parents and my brother for standing by me with their words of encouragement . . . Several people who were of great help — Lucille Armsby, Robert Breen, Andy Cogswell, Bob Dundas, Shirley Guetler, Hubert Henderson, Sheila McDorney, Earl Martell, Ross Miller, Ray Moholt, Bob Newlin, Mary Nicol, Dave Penwell, Barbara Tascher, and Abe Wollock . . . And last but not least, I should like to thank the members of the University Print Shop — Claud Lord, Gale Brammer, Fred Glaspey, Barbara Mellott and Wilfred Steingas . . . This was the first year that a Sentinel has been printed on the campus, and these people were patient, helpful, and always strived for perfection . . .

"THIS WAS LOGGING!"

By

RALPH W. ANDREWS

A superb photographic study of early Pacific Northwest logging from the 8000-print record of Darius Kinsey. This notable book has been hailed by critics from coast-to-coast as an outstanding publication. Quality photoengravings, by ARTCRAFT, were made from pictures taken over fifty years ago! The technical skill and pride of craftsmanship at ARTCRAFT, helped to produce a best-seller for SUPERIOR.

Felling a 12-foot cedar in 1906 on the Olympic Peninsula. This is one of the more than 200 finely detailed pictures in "This Was Logging." Available at bookstores or directly from Superior Publishing Co., Box 2190, Seattle 11, Washington. $8.50. 157 pages, 8 1/2 x 11 inches.

YEARBOOK STAFFS BENEFIT BY ARTCRAFT'S EXPERIENCE

ARTCRAFT is experienced in all details of book production because it is in the publishing business with SUPERIOR. ARTCRAFT'S publishing experience and teamwork with printers gives a complete service tailored to the specific needs of yearbook staffs.

Yearbook staffs count on ARTCRAFT for good service and fine quality work. New modern equipment and experienced craftsmen, in a large complete plant, serve the finest yearbooks in the Pacific Northwest. Our craftsmen are carefully supervised by experts in the field of distinctive school publications.

For the best quality engravings and service, yearbook staffs turn to ARTCRAFT year-after-year! We find real pleasure satisfying yearbook editors, advisors, and the students.

The Treasure State's First Schools

Montana education may be regarded as having its birth in the Bitter-root Valley, the valley of many historical firsts.

Schooling had its beginning in what became this state with the establishment of the St. Mary's Mission in that valley in 1841, first in the secular teaching of the Catholic priests and then in the school set up by Major John Owen, when he took over the Mission in 1850 and established it as a trading post. The school at this fort was for the Indian as well as the white.

The first vocational classes, if we can call them such, were taught by the Catholic missionaries in 1846 at St. Mary's when a grist mill and saw mill were built, the first in Montana. They taught carpentry and blacksmithing to the Indians.

In 1863 a boarding school was established at St. Ignatius Mission in the Flathead country. It had been founded in 1854. There, too, from 1864 on, vocations were taught the Indians.

The first public school as such was opened December 12, 1864, in Virginia City, but prior to that time a school, supported by the public subscription of gold dust, was established in 1863 in Bannack.

With the opening of the Virginia City school the first school district was formally organized to launch the public school system in Montana.

A Bright Future . . .

Whether we are conscious of it or not, life is becoming easier . . . considering the amount of physical drudgery that machines do for us today. When we are able to do a job easier and quicker, we can turn our attention to other tasks. That's the way progress is made.

Electricity — only 75 years old, practically speaking — has done much to lighten our burdens. Today in Montana the average resident is using three times as much electrical energy as he did a decade ago. We will continue to use more and more in the future, freeing our hands and our minds for greater accomplishments.

In Montana electricity is doubly enjoyable — it's abundant and cheap . . . 13.4 per cent under the national average.
